

Hans-Georg van Liempd

Secretary of the University
Tilburg University

In his role of Secretary of the University Hans-Georg is the main advisor of the Executive Board of the university. His responsibility lies in preparing and implementing decisions made by the Board, in close consultation with the Deans, Schools, and Support Services to optimally equip students and staff for their important work in research, education, and society. Hans-Georg also acts as Director of University Services, by which he is responsible for all support services of the university: Academic Services, Human Resources, Library & IT Services, Facility Services, Marketing & Communication and Finance & Control, and Executive Services.

He also serves as chair of various university wide programs: Information Security Improvement Program and Digital Enhancement of Education Program.

In the past, he held several positions at Tilburg University. He was Managing Director at the Tilburg School of Social and Behavioural Sciences (TSB) from November 2014 - 2021. Next to his role for TSB he was interim Managing Director at the Law School and at the School of Humanities and Digital Sciences. In 2005, he set up the Central International Office at Tilburg University and served as its Director until mid-2010, when he became elected as Vice President of the EAIE. From September 2010 until September 2014, he served as (vice-) President of the European Association for International Education (EAIE). During his (vice-) Presidency for EAIE he worked as Senior Programme Manager at Tilburg on university wide programmes such as Internationalising the Campus and Corporate Social Responsibility. In 2014, he served as interim Director of the Strategy & Policy department, and in spring 2016, he was interim director Student Services.

He still acts as senior EAIE Trainer on Internationalisation Strategy. In this role as expert on Internationalisation of HE and strategy, he speaks frequently at institutions and conferences, and leads seminars and workshops, e.g. in Belgium, Colombia, Czech Republic, Denmark, Finland, France, Hungary, Israel, Italy, Poland, Romania, Spain, Tunisia, and the Netherlands.

Furthermore, he is an appointed member of the Supervisory Boards of Tilburg Theaters, of ContourdeTwern (regional organization for Social & Volunteer Work) and of the Netherlands School of Public and Occupational Health (NSPOH), and he is an appointed member of the Management Board of the Centre for Higher Education Internationalisation of the Università Cattolica del Sacro Cuore in Milan, Italy.

<https://www.linkedin.com/in/hansgeorgvanliempd/T.B.C.>