

Jeanine Gregersen – Hermans

@ jgh@live.nl

NETHERLANDS

Dr. Jeanine Gregersen – Hermans is a researcher and practitioner with a focus on the internationalisation of higher education, intercultural and global competence development, and education for sustainable development. She is currently connected to the research centre Sustainable International Business, Zuyd University of Applied Sciences in the Netherlands. She is also on the Supervisory Board of Thomas More University of Applied Sciences (the Netherlands), holding the portfolio for quality of education and research. She has participated in several EU funded projects, most recently as a partner in the ICI Project - Inclusive Comprehensive Internationalisation (2022- 2025) and coordinator in the IBE_ReGloMi project- Innovating Business Education for Responsible Global Minds (2022-2025). She is a member of the advisory board of the World Council in Intercultural and Global Competence. She is an EAIE award winner and an honorary member of the Network of International Relations Officers of Agricultural universities in Europe (IROICA). She is a licensed administrator of the Intercultural Development Inventory (IDI), the Intercultural Effectiveness Scale (IES), and a certified Earth Charter Educator. Jeanine obtained her PhD in higher education internationalisation from Università Cattolica del Sacro Cuore, and she is a current member of the CHEI Academic Board.